NEWS
OCTOBER 20, 2019

LUKOIL FOR CRAFTSMEN AND ABOUT THE MASTERS OF THEIR CRAFTS

For craftsmen and about craftsmen, LUKOIL SRBIJA has organized a sweepstakes during October and November called “Majstori svog zanata 1 i 2”, with a prize pool of over 300 rewards. The main prizes will certainly attract the attention of a wide range of consumers: six vouchers for the purchase of ECTO fuel worth up to RSD 150,000 each, one voucher of RSD 50,000 and RSD 30,000 for the purchase of Gorenje home appliances, valuable Black & Decker tool sets. The participants of the first sweepstakes have the opportunity to win one of five contemporary art works from Serbian painters.

"Oldtimer," "Embrace," "Girl," "Wandering Travelers," and "Sky Steamboat", come together at one point - in the art of their authors to portray the world from a different perspective. It is these pictures that have distinguished " Majstori svog zanata 1 i 2" from the many sweepstakes underway this fall. Slavko Krunić, Saša Montiljo, Daniel Guteša and Goran Mitrović are well-known local artists not only to art lovers but to the wider public and lovers of the fine arts, as well.

For drivers, the most interesting prizes are always fuel prizes. Therefore, winners of the two sweepstakes will be awarded a total of over one million dinars to buy LUKOIL ECTO fuel through daily, monthly and main prizes.

Anyone domiciled in Serbia is eligible to participate if they make a single purchase worth at least RSD 2,000 dinars at any LUKOIL SRBIJA gas station, after that all you have to do is send a text message with the unique code from your fiscal receipt. Loyalty card holders with a minimum of 2,000 points are also eligible to exchange their points for a voucher with a unique code.