NEWS
JANUARY 31, 2020

LUKOIL SRBIJA AND THE CITY OF BELGRADE SIGN A COOPERATION AGREEMENT

The signing of the 2020 Cooperation Agreement between the City of Belgrade and LUKOIL SRBIJA AD took place at the Belgrade City Assembly. The Agreemen was signed by Assistant Mayor Andreja Mladenović on behalf of the City and by General Director Denis Ryupin on behalf of LUKOIL SRBIJA.

In order to expand and develop co-operation with the City of Belgrade on a long-term and stable basis, LUKOIL SRBIJA has committed itself to financing projects in the field of sports, culture, ecology, science, as well as social and humanitarian projects for 2020. This is the fifth year of continuous support and cooperation between the company and Belgrade for the benefit of all city residents.

The total funds which LUKOIL has secured for financing city projects in this year is 20 million dinars, for: FEST Film Festival, the Martovski festival- Belgrade Documentary and Short Film Festival, Dani Beograda, Belgrade Liberation Day, and the JAZZ Festival. In the forthcoming period, special three-party contracts will be concluded between the company, the City and each of the end users, said Assistant Mayor Andrija Mladenović and expressed his satisfaction that this cooperation has greatly contributed to the cultural life and resulted in expanding the offer and enriching cultural content for Belgraders.

The General Director of LUKOIL SRBIJA Denis Ryupin emphasized that successfu cooperation and support for city projects, which has been going on for five years, will continue and that this, long ago, stopped being an obligation of a responsible company and become that of an honor.