75 YEARS OF VICTORY DAY

LUKOIL SRBIJA marked the 75th anniversary of Victory Day by organizing and participating in a series of events that traditionally celebrate the great victory over fascism achieved during the Second World War.

On behalf of LUKOIL SRBIJA, on the eve of Victory Day, wreaths were laid in honor of the fallen fighters at the Belgrade Liberation Memorial Cemetery by General Director Denis Ryupin, Director of Exploitation and Development Sergey Arnaut and Security Manager Vladimir Sirota. Representatives of the Embassy of the Russian Federation in Serbia, the Representation of Rossotrudnichestvo, state leadership, city authorities and social organizations paid tribute to the fallen heroes-liberators at the memorial cemetery. The laying of wreaths was preceded by a service for all soldiers who gave their lives for the Fatherland.

LUKOIL SRBIJA gas stations and the hall of the Directorate were decorated with posters dedicated to Victory Day, while retail employees distributed the St. George's ribbon to consumers this day.
