NEWS
APRIL 29, 2015

AWARDS GIVEN ON THE OCCASION OF VICTORY DAY

At a festive ceremony on the occasion of 70th Anniversary of Victory in the Great Patriotic War, held in Moscow today, LUKOIL employees received decorations from the Russian government, its agencies and from their own company. Vladimir Osipov, Head of Office of the RF President for State Awards, and Vagit Alekperov, OAO LUKOIL President, gave merited awards to the heads and employees of LUKOIL Group for their great contributions to the development of the fuel-and-energy complex of Russia, and of the company, and also to honour their long and conscientious work.

Andrei Cucu, CEO of "LUKOIL SRBIJA" AD and Head of the Balkan Interregional Organization, was awarded the Order of Friendship; Vladimir Vasilyev, OAO LUKOIL Vice President for Taxes, and Vladimir Dmitriev, General Director of LUKOIL-Tsentrnefteprodukt, were awarded Medals of the Order "For Service to the Motherland, Second Class"; and Ilshat Davletov and Sergey Shesterikov, employees of LUKOIL-West Siberia, were granted the titles of the "Honored Worker of the Oil and Gas Industry of the Russian Federation". Thirteen other employees were also granted honorary titles by the Ministry of Energy, certificates of merit and letters of acknowledgment from the company.

"The great men of our nation who gave their lives will forever live in the hearts of those who have a sense of responsibility for the preservation of our country's history and respect for its heroic past. Today, the Company supports more than 2,000 veterans of the Great Patriotic War and war workers who formerly were employees of "LUKOIL" Group," Mr. Vagit Alekperov emphasized.