LUKOIL SRBIJA AD PROVIDING SUPPORT - AGREEMENT ON CULTURAL COOPERATION

The City of Belgrade, LUKOIL Company SRBIJA AD and the representatives of CEBEF projects, cultural institutions “Vuk“ and “Dadov“ signed on 18 April a three-party agreement pursuant to the Cooperation Agreement between the City and the Company for 2016. The agreements were signed by Deputy Mayor Andreja Mladenović, LUKOIL SRBIJA AD CEO Andrey Kuku, CEBEF Director Milan Lazović, Director of Cultural Institution “Vuk“ Svetislav Goncić and Director of Cultural Institution “Dadov“ Vladimir Mijović. According to the words of the Belgrade Deputy Mayor, this agreement was signed thanks to the cooperation of many years between the City and the Company, which has supported on this occasion cultural events and projects. — Agreements were signed to support CEBEF in the organization of FEST and Documentary and Short Film Festival; with “Dadov“ within the “Our Treasure“ event; and with UK “Vuk“ within the “Let’s Cherish Serbian Language” event, Mladenović explained. LUKOIL SRBIJA AD CEO Andrey Kuku pointed out that by signing these agreements good cooperation with the City has been completed in the field of cultural development, and added: — Since our Company is a socially responsible one, we are planning to contribute to the City development on our part.
