PASSION FOR MINI VEHICLES AND LATTE ART AT THE LUKOIL GAS STATION

The Aerodrom LUKOIL gas station, near Belgrade, one of the company's seven highway gas stations, was the location for a gathering of Mini Club members, fans of the Mini vehicles. With Latte Art presented by barmen, drivers and visitors alike could enjoy the aroma and art of coffee preparation and the colorfulness of the popular "Mini".

Organized by the Mini Club of Serbia, the Balkan Minijada is a regional gathering of all Mini lovers. This manifestation was a sign of two jubilees, 15 years of the Balkan Minijade and 20 years of LUKOIL SRBIJA. Guests from 10 European countries gathered at the fair: Italy, Slovenia, Croatia, Slovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria, North Macedonia, Montenegro, Russia and Serbia. After a break at the Aerodrom gas station, as many as 60 Mini Morris vehicles of all types set off for Mećavnik and Šarganska Osmica.
