NEW YEAR PRESENTS FOR CHILDREN AT THE "DRINKA PAVLOVIĆ" HOME AND THE ZVEČANSKA INPATIENT WAD

The President of the Belgrade Municipality of Savski venac Irena Vujović, along with Vesna Ružičić, Senior Manager for Commercial Affairs at the Company, handed out New Year's gifts to children without parental care from the "Drinka Pavlović" Home and the Zvečanska Inpatient Ward.

The children were presented with gifts at the King Petar I Karađorđević home on Senjak accompanied by an appropriate program with a concert and animators who, in addition to the gifts, brought some joy to the children.

The President of Savski venac stated that the Municipality, in cooperation with the company "LUKOIL SERBIA", organized gift distribution for the children: "I would like to thank the company "LUKOIL" for recognizing the needs of the children and for taking part in such an activity. I hope that other companies will choose to go this way as well."

As she pointed out, they are working very hard, within the Municipality of Savski venac, to look after the interests of all children and stated that they had also handed out gifts to children at the Institute for Oncology yesterday. Irena Vujović announced that the Municipality has planned many New Year's activities for its youngest citizens and that they would continue to listen to the citizens' needs, improve their service and look after its young.

Psychologist and coordinator of the Zvečanska Inpatient Ward, Miloš Stanković, thanked the Municipality and the Company for its support, as well as the attention paid to the children.

Vesna Ružičić, Senior Manager for Commercial Affairs at "LUKOIL SERBIA" AD thanked the Municipality of Savski venac on its cooperation in organizing this beautiful event and stressed that: "As a socially responsible company, "LUKOIL SERBIA", is aware of the need to invest in the future and in this sense actively takes part in activities related to the needs of children and the youngest members of society, not only in Belgrade but also throughout Serbia. We will stay on this path and continue to take part in similar activities," Vesna Ružičić said.
