NEWS
NOVEMBER 01, 2019

LUKOIL SRBIJA SIGNED AGREEMENT WITH RUSKI DOM

A Cooperation Agreement was signed today between LUKOIL SRBIJA AD and the Rossotrudnichestvo Representative Office in Serbia within the premises of the Rossotrudnichestvo Representative Office in Serbia, the Russian Center of Science and Culture, Ruski dom in Belgrade, attended by representatives of the media, cultural and educational organizations, as well as the diplomatic corps in Serbia.

The agreement was signed by the general director of LUKOIL SRBIJA AD, Denis Ryupin, and the Counsellor of the Representative Office, Nadezhda Kushchenkova.

"Cooperation with LUKOIL goes beyond economic frameworks, it is aimed at developing and strengthening spiritual and cultural ties between countries and supporting the promotion of the Russian language, art and culture in Serbia", Nadezhda Kushchenkova said on this occasion, thanking the general director, and the entire company, for their reliable support.

“Long-term cooperation with Ruski dom is a natural part of our company's activities. We are honored to have signed this umbrella agreement today within the Ruski dom building which will continue to support projects that develop true values”, said Denis Ryupin.

The agreement implies the intensification of communication between the parties, cooperation on projects and events aimed at providing joint suport to the popularization of Russian language and culture, and cooperation with the aim of increasing the level of education and the conditions in Serbian schools where classes are taught in Russian.