SIGNED AGREEMENT WITH THE CITY OF BELGRADE

In the Old Palace, which houses the City Assembly of Belgrade, on 11 December, an Agreement with the City of Belgrade for 2016 was signed. Deputy Mayor of the City of Belgrade, Andrija Mladenović, and "LUKOIL SRBIJA" AD CEO, Andrey Kuku, made this cooperation for 2016 public.

By signing this Agreement, with the aim of expanding and developing cooperation on a long-term and stable basis, "LUKOIL SRBIJA" will finance in the year to come projects in the field of culture, science, sports, environment, as well as social and humanitarian projects. The representatives of the City Assembly, Andrija Mladenović and Goran Vesić, emphasized that the City is very grateful for the understanding and support offered by PAO "LUKOIL". Thus, the City will continue the good practice and cooperation with this major international company and significant investor in Belgrade, while the Company will strengthen its partnership relations with the local community in which it runs its business operations.

The City promised to focus its attention on resolving the issue of legalisation of "LUKOIL SRBIJA" AD facilities. A Working Group, consisting of representatives of all competent City authorities for the resolution of this complex issue, has been established with this goal in mind.
