NEW LUKOIL SRBIJA COLLECTIVE BARGANING AGREEMENT SIGNED

In the premises of "LUKOIL SERBIA", representatives of the employer and the trade union organization of the company signed the new Collective Bargaining Agreement.

This is the sixth Collective Bargaining Agreement in a row since the moment of privatization and it will last for a year. At the initiative of the trade union and through the joint action of representatives of both sides who participated in the negotiation process, which began in June of last year, a new positive step forward in the position of employees has been achieved.
