NEWS
MARCH 23, 2017

LUKOIL SRBIJA LAUREATE OF THE "CAPTAIN MIŠA ANASTASIJEVIĆ" CHARTER

The traditional ceremony recognizing achievements made by entrepreneurs, artists and other creators, "Captain Miša Anastasijević" Charter, was held yesterday at The Grand Hall of the University of Belgrade Rectorate, in memory of the great 19th century, Serbian entrepreneur and benefactor. The Retail Director for "LUKOIL SRBIJA" Vesna Ružićić received the award from jury member Momčilo Todorović, PhD.

The ceremony was preceded by the national anthem "Bože pravde" performed by the Children's Choir of the First Belgrade's Singing Society and an introduction by Acting Director of the Belgrade Chamber of Commerce, Milivoje Miletić. Guests were then addressed by the President of the Jury, Professor Radovan Pejanović, PhD, who spoke about the messages and achievements of the Charter which bears Captain Miša's name, and the poet Pero Zubac who spoke about Serbian benefactors.

Numerous awards were presented during the ceremony: the President of the Municipality of New Belgrade, Aleksandar Šapić, received an Award for Best Local Self-Government; the Director of the Development Agency of Serbia, Zeljko Sertić, received an Award for Improvements to the Economic Environment in Serbia; and the Director of the Republic Geodetic Institute, Borko Drašković, received an Award for Social Responsibility.

The Ambassador of Montenegro, Branislav Mićunović, received recognition for cross-border cooperation, the Academic Ljubomir Simović for remarkable contribution to Serbian literature and culture, while the Branch Office of the pharmaceutical company Alkaloid Skopje in Belgrade was rewarded as Best Partner.

On behalf of the award recipients, the Director of the Development Agency of Serbia, Zeljko Sertić, addressed all those present.